AMATEUR RADIO PLATE INFORMATION

1. All fees must be submitted with this application.

2. An applicant must first title their vehicle and have a regular Class A plate issued on that vehicle. No requests will be accepted unless the Division has a record of that vehicle and current plate.

3. Amateur Radio plates are for Class A vehicles only – Automobiles and trucks weighing under 8000 pounds.

4. An Amateur Radio plate will be issued if the Division of Motor Vehicles determines:

    a. the requested choice is available.
    b. The requested choice does not conflict with a regular series license number.

5. Once an Amateur Radio plate is issued, it may continue to be reserved yearly, if fees are paid when required.

6. An Amateur Radio plate can be transferred to another vehicle in the original registrant's name. A $5.00 transfer fee and $.50 insurance fee is required.

7. When the Amateur Radio plate is received by the applicant, the currently assigned regular plate and registration card must be returned to the Division of Motor Vehicles within ten days.

8. All requests for Amateur Radio plates must be submitted, in writing, on this form to the Division along with a copy of your FCC license. Please do not send original certificate.

9. The $10.00 reservation fee is an additional one-time fee.
